JUDGE PEARSON AND GOV. HOLDEN.

The experience of the last few months must satisfy every one that an elective Judiciary, for short terms, is a curse to a free people, whose simple desire is to have the laws faithfully and impartially administered. The sentiment universally prevails, that nearly all our Judges are so warmly enlisted as partizans in the Republican cause, that from bias of mind, justice is too often perverted from considerations of party, and for the maintenance of party advancement.

Judge Pearson, once free and independent, has recently incurred the distrust and condemnation of the public, by the irregular eccentricities of his action and the startling and astounding doctrines he has proclaimed. The habeas corpus act which for centuries, has been enlarging and expanding, so as to cover every possible case and secure to the citizen immunity from the slightest tyrannical oppression, is now in his hands found too contracted to furnish relief in cases as harsh as ever occurred in the reign of King John or any of the Stuarts. Is the fault in the act or in the blindness or unwillingness of the Judge?—No doubt can be entertained, when it is recollected that other Judges in England and America, have always found the act sufficiently liberal, to authorize them to inquire in every case whether the parties seeking redress have been legally or illegally imprisoned. This is the only matter of inquiry in such cases, and to secure it, the broadest and most ample powers are conferred upon the Judges.

In enumerating the many rights of the citizen prohibiting general warrants where by any and all persons may be seized without evidence of any act committed or any offence not particularly described—declaring that no person ought to be taken, imprisoned or in any manner deprived of his life, liberty or property, but by the law of the land—that every person restrained of his liberty is entitled to a remedy to enquire into the lawfulness thereof, and to remove the same, if unlawful, and such remedy ought not to be denied or delayed—that all Courts shall be open and every person, for an injury done him, shall have remedy by due course of law, and right and justice administered without sale, denial or delay, &c., &c. The Constitution affords the strongest assurances, that at all times the personal liberty of the citizen shall be secured, and if invaded shall be relieved.—These assurances, however, would prove only magnificent fustian, and empty rant, if not accompanied with some substantial and practical plan for redress in cases of tyrannical oppression. To give force and virtue to these glowing clauses it was also provided "that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, shall not be suspended."

These guarantees have been acquired by the perseverance of ages. For centuries personal liberty has been manfully contending with the giant of oppression, and it was believed that it had at last so bolstered and bound him, as to render him harmless for the future. Kings and Councils, Exchequers and Starchambers, Sheriffs and Judges, had all been subdued in the contest, and the citizen felt that unless he offended the law, that law would certainly protect him, and there was no one to make him afraid.

In the hour of security however, the Chief Justice is heard to announce, there is yet one man left greater than the Johns and Stuarts, who may continue to arrest, maltreat and imprison the people without being accountable to the law. One W. W. Holden yet wields the tyrant's sway in defiance of law, Constitution and the sacred right of habeas corpus. "The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court has no power under the habeas corpus act, to order the arrest of the Governor of the State."

This is certainly a very strange doctrine, and a wilful repudiation of the plainest and most unequivocal language, of an act, originally conceived to frustrate the tyranny of kings. Section 15 of the habeas corpus act prescribes:

"If any person or officer on whom any writ of habeas corpus shall have been duly served, shall refuse or neglect to obey the same, it shall be the duty of the Court or Judge, before whom &c. forthwith to issue an attachment against such person or officer, directed to the Sheriff of any County within this State and commanding him forthwith to apprehend such person or officer and bring him immediately before such Court or Judge, and on being so brought, such person or officer shall be committed to close custody in the jail of the county, where such Court or Judge may be, without being allowed the liberties thereof, until such person or officer make return to such writ and comply with any order that may be made by such Court or Judge in relation to the party, for whose relief the writ shall have been issued."

Upon what principle can the Governor be exempted from the operation of this clause? He is a person and an officer, and like every other person and officer in the land, is subject to the laws and Constitution of the State. As every other, so was he bound to make due return of the writs and show to the Judge, the right and authority which he claimed, to imprison any citizen of the State. If his right was legal then the prisoners would be remanded, if wrongful he would be taken from his custody and discharged as the Constitutions of the State and of the United States provide. But the Governor refused and the Judge says, I have no power under the habeas corpus act to attach the Governor. Is this officer above the law? Does the Judge mean to assert, that a petty Governor, is entitled to the prerogative of majesty? That as a King he can do no wrong, and is above the law? In this State and all the States the sovereignty resides in the people—and the Governors are simply officers, like Sheriffs, Coroners, Clerks and Judges—who are all amenable to the laws, liable to impeachment and indictment and subject to fines, imprisonment and even capital punishment. The idea that the Governor, is above the law and not subject to the process of the Courts is absurd, ridiculous and unrepublican. When the Judge issues a writ he does it by authority vested in him, but he does not issue it in his own name, but in the name of the sovereign, "THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA." The mandate is not his, but he only issues it as his sworn duty enjoins, in behalf of the State; and where the duty is expressed he may not legitimately refuse to perform it. In this land of Constitutional liberty, no man stands above the law, and no Governor has no more power to set the habeas corpus act at defiance than the humblest individual of society.

But, again the Judge asserts as an excuse for not obeying the act, that if he grants to the citizen his certain right, it will be resisted and "then comes war"!! The cases then of the greatest violence and outrage, when the writ is most essentially needed, are above the reach of law. It matters not whether the Governor is implicated or not, if Tennesseans or our own lawless citizens band together to arrest or imprison our people, they must submit to violence, and be left to the banditti, for fear of resistance! The inculcation of such a doctrine is clearly odious if not contemptible, as inviting insurrection and violence on a scale sufficiently large to entitle them to an exemption from the law.

As a further excuse, the Judge says, I have no posse comitatus, I am powerless.—This is an ingenious but very unjustifiable turn to give to the matter; no Judge has any posse comitatus. The posse belongs to the Sheriffs; and they call out the power of their several counties when necessary to execute process. Sec. 19 of the habeas corpus act provides:

"In the execution of any attachment, precept or writ, under sections 15, 16 and 17, the Sheriff, Coroner or other persons to whom it may be directed, may call to his aid the power of the county as in other cases."

And in Sec. 15 it is provided, "that the process may be directed to the Sheriff of any county within this State, and Sec. 17 authorizes "The Court or Judge to direct the precept to any Sheriff, Coroner or other person, commanding him to bring forthwith before such Court or Judge, the party whereever to be found, for whose benefit the writ of habeas corpus shall have been granted." It was not necessary, therefore, that the writ should have been directed to the Sheriff of Caswell or Alamance, or to any "insurgent," for there were 80 odd other Sheriffs, and nearly 200,000 other persons to whom the writ might have been directed, and each one of them had a posse comitatus. This excuse, therefore, is, but a flimsy pretext for not discharging a simple, plain duty, which the Judge in taking office had assumed to perform, and which Judge Kerr and others had a right to demand regardless of the displeasure of Holden or the ire of Kirk.

When Holden flatly refused to obey the writ of the Chief Justice, he should at once have been attached and sent to prison.—The county of Wake was not in a state of pretended insurrection, there were no insurgents there, and the writ could have been executed by the Sheriff, the Marshal or any other person, without any apprehension of civil war. In such case, Kirk's forces would have disbanded, as useless, worse than useless, as recoiling upon his own superior; and why should not the Governor have been sent to jail and imprisoned? His sentence was explicitly written in the law which he disregarded and the Judge had only to pronounce it? Why should he, clearly guilty in the eye and the word of the law, go scot free, and Kerr, Hill, Roan and others be held as prisoners without warrant or legal charge, in manifest violation of the Constitution and law of the land?

This would not have been so, had the whole subject been viewed through other than the partizan glasses of an elective Judiciary. The Courts or Judges may not control the Governor, In the exercise of those executive powers entrusted solely to his official judgment, but the right to decide whether the imprisonment of these parties was legal or illegal belongs to the Judiciary, and can only be passed upon by the Judges. Holden should have been compelled to make his return of the persons and all the facts and circumstances claimed by him as a justification for their imprisonment, and the Judge should have sifted and examined these facts to weigh their merits. If the law had been properly administered Holden would have gone to jail, the prisoners would have been released from the insults of Kirk and Burges, and the farce of a secret insurrection peaceably ended.

BENCH WARRANT CASES BEFORE JUDGE PEARSON.

FOURTH DAY.

3 P. M. August, 20th.

State vs. F. A. Wiley, charged with the murder of John W. Stephens.

EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES.

Dr. Roan was sworn and testified; gave a description of the Court House building of Caswell, position of the various rooms and surroundings. Resides in Yanceyville, is one of the County Commissioners, was in Yanceyville on the day Stephens was said to have been murdered; went into the room with the jury of inquest on Sunday morning; saw the body; there was a small grass rope, nine feet long, doubled, drawn tightly round the neck with a noose; there were three stabs, one on each side of the windpipe and one in the breast. Saw the knife said to have been found near the body, it was nearly new, double bladed, the largest blade about three inches long. The body was drawn up, the knees toward the breast, placed in a gap in a pile of wood at the end of the room, as if it had been pushed down there, head resting back on the wood, the side toward the wall. Has no doubt the murder was committed in the room; saw blood on the wood and the wall as it it spirted on them. Saw blood on the window sill and a box under the window [illegible] rather than the rest on the granite foundation. There was no blood on the floor except near where the body was found.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Am a County Commissioner, was applied to, about 9 or 10 o'clock on Saturday night by Thomas Stephens and a colored man named Cook for permission to search the Court House for Stephens, gave the permission and went with them; there were a large number of persons about the Court House, especially near the room in which the body was afterwards found, mostly inside the iron fence, but some were outside. In searching thinks they went first to the Court room, not certain as to that; also looked through the rooms below, except the rooms of the Clerk and Master, and two others occupied as law offices. Tom and Henry Stephens and Mr. Groom were in the company. When they came to the room where the body was found, one of the Stephenses looked in at the windows by standing on a box which he had brought and placed for the purpose—looked in at both windows by aid of candles.—Saw no blood that night on the window; the box was brought some 30 or 40 feet; heard no one speak of seeing any blood; left the box under one of the windows. Went back about 8 o'clock next morning, then saw blood on window sill and on the box, and the drop on the granite foundation; this was at the north window where the box had been left. The windows were down the night before, don't know whether they were fast, they are usually fastened by a stick over them. Was not present when the room was first entered on Sunday morning, went in with the jury soon after; saw no key.

Q. by defense.—Have you been arrested about this affair? Objected to.

TO THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

The blood on the window sill seemed to have been left by the pressure of some bloody object, as a hand or foot, and the same of that on the box. Don't think the body could have been seen from the window.

DIRECT EXAMINATION RESUMED.

We made no examination at the South window because of its height, some 7 or 8 feet, from the ground—it was Thomas Stephens and the negro Cook who asked permission to search the Court House, and I went with them.

TO JUDGE DICK.

The granite would not absorb the blood so readily as the wood, which may account for the fresh appearance of the drop of blood on the stone, but feels certain that the blood fell there in an uncongealed state; it struck the edge of the stone and divided, a part trickling down the face of the stone; thinks the action of the atmosphere would change the color of the blood more than anything else.

Daniel Johnston, colored, called, and cautioned by the C. J. as to the responsibilities resting on him, at the request of defendant's counsel.

Am 50 years old, used to belong to Geo. Johnston of Milton, lives in the western portion of the town of Yanceyville, lived there at the time of Stephens' death. On that day was at home till 3 or 4 o'clock in afternoon, then went down town, went into the Court House; Hill was speaking; he soon concluded; Dr. Roan then said, "next Saturday is your meeting," alluding to the Republicans, "and you shall have the Court House, you are as much entitled to it as any body," and Judge Kerr sanctioned what he said. Didn't see Stephens that day. Fayette Graves who lived with Stephen's came and enquired for Stephens, said he was missing; somebody said they reckoned he was at Groom's. He then went home. About dusk went down town again, saw them hunting for Stephens; saw several colored men, Dr. Roan and Thomas and Henry Stephens; they looked in all the rooms but those of the lawyers' offices and the Clerk and Master's room. Dr. Roan said he had not the key to that, and they went round to the windows and Tom Stephens and Groom looked in by standing on the box. Several colored persons stayed round the Court House all night, with Tom and Henry Stephens and John Hemphill to guard the house. Saw several people passing during the night, 40 or 50, they did not come near the Court House, were at the stores near by; it was a starlight night, did not go near them. At day break some one went for the key but did not get it; saw Mr. Crowder hoist the window and go in; he then opened the door and Dr. Yancey, the Coroner with the jury went in; witness was on the jury, and was about the third to enter; saw Crowder with the lock in his hand, the bolt and thumbbolt were shot out; saw the body of Stephens with a rope drawn tightly round the neck, there were two sticks in the wood supporting the head, his hat was lying near the body and appeared to have been stepped on; there was one stab on each side the windpipe and one in the breast.

[Dr. Roan was here recalled; saw no wound on the leg, nor any part of the body except those mentioned.]

Saw the body before the window was opened on Sunday morning. Crowder had some tool, didn't see it in opening the window. After entering, the body was taken and laid on the floor and undressed; Dr. Roan examined the wounds; they found his pocket book, his watch and a pen knife in his pockets, but no weapon. The knife he was stabbed with lay on the floor. Understood Stephens generally went armed, had seen him carrying three pistols. Mr. Wiley was sent for before the inquest; he was questioned in regard to going down from the Court room with Stephens, and he stated that Stephens had touched him and asked to speak with him and they went down together, Stephens urging him to run for Sheriff. Witness knows nothing more than what was in evidence before the jury of inquest.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Witness went to Court House at 3 or 4 o'clock and stayed till sun set; heard Stephens was missing before he left. (Repeated substantially what he had said in the direct examination.) On his return saw the two brothers of Stephens and John Hemphill with many colored men standing round, other white men came up. The search was soon commenced, substantially as stated by Dr. Roan. Geo. Bowe, colored, discovered the body Sunday morning; he first discovered his cane, then went to the other window and saw the body. Nesbit looked in Commissioners' room and at the store for the key, but could not find it; Crowder went in at the window and then opened the door by taking off the hasp, and let in the jury. Wiley had stated before the jury that he had had no talk with Stephens except in regard to his running for Sheriff, that he left him and went over to Harrelson's for a bottle of bitters while Hamp Johnston was holding his horse; that after getting the bitters he had a short talk with a bound boy about wages and then got in his buggy and went home; that he had the conversation with Stephens while the meeting was going on in the Court room. Wiley, in going from Harrelson's might have gone either through the Court House or round it to his buggy; the one was as near as the other.

DIRECT, RESUMED.

Saw no papers in Stephens' pocket book; Wiley stated that Stephens touched him while the meeting was going on.

TO JUDGE DICK.

Thomas Stephens and John Hemphill were with those who stayed all night guarding the Court House.

Louis Hill called.

Lives in Yanceyville, was there on the day of Stephens' murder, between 2 and 3 o'clock saw Wiley step up to Stephens and touch him on the arm; Stephens got up and they went out of the Court House; Clay Hubbard followed. Witness stayed till meeting broke up and then went to a colored caucus at a school house some distance off. Joe Fowler also went out soon after Wiley and Stephens left—heard nothing of the murder till next morning.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Was on the left hand side of the Court room when Wiley and Stephens went out, they went down the front stairs. Hubbard and Fowler followed, heard them say nothing to each other, saw Wiley no more; saw Hubbard soon after, going home; did not see Fowler any more—didn't see any one going down just at the time Wiley and Stephens left, but many were passing up and down; could not see Stephens afterwards—was some ten feet off when Wiley touched him.

TO THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

Don't know where Clay Hubbard is; have not seen him since that day.

The session was then adjourned to 9 o'clock to morrow morning.

FIFTH DAY, August 23.

TUESDAY M[illegible]

Court set at 9 o'clock and called and examined. Wm. H. Brooksville, boarded with his Lives in the time of his death. On the morning of the murder went to the Court House about 9 o'clock, A. M. His brother went there some hour later—they remained till adjournment for dinner—he and his brother dined together. His brother went back about two o'clock; had one ten-shooter and two Derringer pistols—saw him take them from a wardrobe and put them in his pockets. Followed to the Court House 20 minutes after—saw his brother in the Court House; he was taking notes of Hodnett's speech, who made personal allusion to his brother, to the effect that he was taking notes to send to Holden to be forwarded to Grant—this drew attention to his brother; saw several men apparently looking as if to see his notes. About 4 o'clock saw Wiley approach him, thinks he said to him "let's go down" at the same time touching him; they went down together; this was while Mr. Brown was speaking. Went down before speaking closed; saw several passing up and down; went to Harrelson's, saw his brother no more—could have seen him if he had been in front of the Court House. About 5 o'clock went to Groom's and thence home. Mrs. Stephens was uneasy and asked him to look for his brother; went out and enquired, but heard nothing of him; went to Groom's again and got his brother Tom and they went back to the Court House; went round to Neal's store; then sent for —— Cook, colored, who is a magistrate; Cook and Thomas Stephens went for Dr. Roan; they then with Dr. Roan and others searched the Court House, except two law offices and the Clerk and Master's room; Dr. Roan sent to Scoffield for the key to this room but it could not be found. They then went to the window of the room and Groom looked in at the window; this was near 7 o'clock; they had a candle, but it threw but an imperfect light. Nothing was said of opening the windows that night. Then got a lantern and searched Fotcel's stables, then the crowd dispersed; went home. Came back in about 10 minutes, went where Thomas Stephens was, in rear of the Court House and remained till morning; Hemphill was there also, and squads of colored persons were on all sides the Court House. Saw no others, except some persons asked in all the rooms but those of the lawyers' offices and the Clerk and Master's room. Dr. Roan said he had not the key to that, and they went round to the windows and Tom Stephens and Groom looked in by standing on the box. Several colored persons stayed round the Court House all night, with Tom and Henry Stephens and John Hemphill to guard the house. RECEPTION OF MR. TURNER AND OTHERS.

The people of North Carolina regardless of party or color are respectfully invited to attend the GRAND MASS RECEPTION, to be given Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., Hon. John Kerr and others, recently arrested by Col. Geo. W. Kirk, on Thursday, 25th inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M.

J. P. LEACH,
A. L. ADAMS, } Com.
B. F. CHEATHAM.

Raleigh, Aug. 20, 1870.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND GEN. R. B. VANCE.—To talk about Sunday Schools and Temperance, reminds every one in our Western counties of our excellent friend, Gen. R. B. Vance, of Asheville. The Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist Sunday Schools of the city, convened at the Methodist Church on Sunday last at 4 o'clock, to hear a speech from the General. He spoke for an hour in his own peculiar style, much to the profit and entertainment of young and old. We hope the important lessons inculcated by him, will be indelibly impressed upon the minds and hearts of the children who listened to him.

The ladies of Raleigh are requested to furnish flowers to decorate the carriages to be used at the reception of Mr. Turner next Thursday.

They will please send them to A. D. Royster & Bro's Store by 11 o'clock on Thursday. Respectfully,

F. STRONACH,
A. D. ROYSTER, } Com.
R. BETTS.

OAK CITY COUNCIL.—Gen. R. B. Vance addressed the Oak City Council at their Hall on Monday night. He gave them an eloquent and powerful speech. By the way, it is about time for another revival in the Oak City Council. We judge from what we see and hear, that King Alcohol has the ascendency yet in these parts. Temperance men, be up and doing.

PUBLIC PRINTER.—A friend in Anson enquires of us by the inquiry, "Will not the SENTINEL office be a candidate for Public Printer? other parties are already electioneering." To which we reply, we do not know Mr. Turner's mind, but presume, as a matter of course, that he will be the next Public Printer.

TENNESSEE.—The election for Judges in Tennessee resulted in the choice of Conservative Judges throughout. The Congressional election will give nearly the entire delegation to the Conservatives.

JUDGE HEATH.—We are pleased to learn that Judge Heath now of Memphis, Tenn., intends residing a portion of his time at his mountain home in this State. His law co-partnership will be kept up in Memphis. He rejoices with us over the Conservative victory in this State.

OFFICIAL VOTE.—We have been waiting anxiously to receive the full official vote of all the counties of the State, to ascertain the exact vote of Judge Shipp and Mr. Phillips. Also, the full official vote of each of the Congressional Districts. We despair of getting them until they are examined at the office of the Secretary of State. As soon as we can obtain them, we will publish full tables, and hope every one will preserve them for future reference.

Hon. F. E. Shober's majority over Sprague in the 6th Congressional District, is 4,034.

Gen. Leach's majority over Scott in the 5th District, is 3,426. The most astonishing result of the election.

Mr. Waddell's majority over Dockery in the third District, is 351.

Col. S. H. Rogers actual majority over J. H. Harris, col., is 1,091.

Col. Harper's majority over Jones in the 7th District will reach about 2,800.

Dr. Ezekiel Hall formerly of Brunswick Co. in this State, recently died at his residence at Fort Valley, Georgia.

YOUNG HEADS OF AGED SHOULDERS.—It is no longer, a loathsome task to darken gray hair. PHALON'S VITALIA, OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR, effects the change without any unclean accompaniment. It is a limpid, clear fluid, and has a pleasant aroma. The number of applications determines the shade. No sediment, no stickiness, no darkened bottles!

The Season of Exhaustion.

The close sultry weather which usually prevails toward the end of summer is particularly unfavorable to the feeble and enervated. Even the well-knit frames of strong men feel the influence of the season, and lassitude and languor pervade the whole community. Ladies, especially those in delicate health, suffer much from debility, occasioned by the humid heat, and feel the want of a wholesome invigorant. In fact, a necessity for something to recruit the exhausted system is experienced, more or less, by everybody, and the only question is, what that something shall be. Those who have tested the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters on themselves, or have observed its effects on others, this question will not be in doubt for a single moment. Its tonic and regulating operation, and its agency in creating a healthy appetite and promoting digestion, are rightly claimed by all who have resorted to this unequalled vegetable invigorant and corrective, among the most extraordinary therapeutic wonders of modern times. It should be taken at this season as a safeguard against the epidemic diseases which are so apt to attack the relaxed system in the fall of the year.

As it is understood that mercenary speculators in various parts of the country are endeavoring to supersede the standard tonic of the age with worthless articles manufactured by themselves which they represent to be superior to this long tried remedy, it is proper to put the public on their guard against this species of imposition and to warn them against the poisonous trash with which dishonest dealers seek to drench them.

LETTER FROM MR. TURNER.

HILLSBORO', August 22, 1870.

GOV. HOLDEN:—You must excuse me for declining to enter into the personal controversy to which you invited me in the Standard of the —— inst.

I look upon you as a self-strangled monster or a broken winged vulture, no longer capable of mischief. You have sinned against God and the people and their judgment is upon you. Your throne of iniquity and Court of inquisition have been overturned by Judge Brooks.

No longer will Pearson decree injustice by law; no longer will he acknowledge the truth of Kirk's declaration, that the sacred writ of habeas corpus "had played out."

I shall leave you for a while longer where you have been since my arrest and imprisonment, in the hands of my local, who, with all the people and Dr. Leach, understand you well, looking upon you as a blot on creation and a scandal to mankind. As you have come to shame, I advise you to silence—making, henceforth, as little noise as possible.

The people have achieved a wonderful victory over their wicked ruler. The extremity of the public danger drew them from their vocations to the polls. They determined to rid themselves of the curse of your administration, and most effectually have they done it.

As you gave me notice of your intention to arrest me, not to be outdone in magnanimity, I now notify you that on Friday next, I shall have you arrested, unless Chief Justice Pearson shall hold that Bench warrants have "played out" with writs of habeas corpus.

Yours as ever,
JOSIAH TURNER, JR.

Monday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The Minister of North Germany here has a dispatch from Secretary Von Tilde narrating that a flag of truce was fired upon and a trumpeter wounded. The dispatch says, "we solemnly protest against this act of the laws of war."

It is rumored Johnson's proclamation covers a column, withdraws the clause bearing on the subject and from persons protection of the United States ing them.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, August 23.—The Union League of sympathy with Germany, passed resolutions

NEW YORK

NEW YORK August 22.—A letter from Santiago de Cuba of the 8th inst. says that Quesada arrived from Bayamo with 2,000 men and was attacked by the rebels and lost 250 killed and wounded including Col. Camara de Miguel and many other officers; his baggage, cannons and six thousand dollars in gold. Col. Leno, commander of the second expedition landed by "Geo. F. Upton," was killed by the Spaniards. Most of the command have been killed, or captured and shot. Col. Banco lately attempted to force his way from Manzanillo to Bayamo but was repulsed. He lost eighteen hundred men and 15 cars of stores and equipage. Eighteen car loads of wounded returned to Manzanillo.

The managers of the rival roads from hence west, confer to-morrow at Saratoga. It is believed that a plan has already been agreed upon which will give a fair division of trade to their roads and lead to a general advance of rates.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, August 22.—The destruction of Bois de Bologne has commenced. The ramparts are fully armed and the forts fully prepared. The entrance to the city can be closed at any moment by drawbridges. It is reported that in case of a siege strangers will be compelled to leave.

The Minister of the Interior publishes a note from the Minister of War to the effect that having had no communication from Bazaine for two days, he thinks Bazaine's plans have not yet succeeded.

The heroic conduct of our soldiers fighting superior numbers of the enemy, give hope of the success of other operations.

The empire pocket have appeared at Dieppe.

LONDON, August 22.—A letter from Victoria to Eugene, August 15th, relative to mediation is published; Victoria regrets her inability to mediate, and intimates that mediation is a cabinet affair and thinks the time inopportune.

The Prussians are surrounding Verdun.

The camp at Chalons has been abandoned, the troops there being ordered along the line.

The plan of the Crown Prince seems to be to advance along the valley of the Aube. It is said McMahon is performing a strategical movement preliminary to an action which Bazaine is expected to support.

Bazaine has at last been supplied with food and ammunition.

The Soirie of to-day says: "It is certain we must accept a siege."

Two of Bismarck's sons have been wounded.

McMahon's headquarters are at Dormier.

The Prussians are bridging the Rhine between Basle and Mulhouse in close proximity to the Swiss line where ten thousand troops are collected.

Stockholm advices state that French agents have been arrested for bribing the press to excite Fre ch sympathy.

A Vienna dispatch says that Austrian Germans have declared for Prussia in this war.

The North German envoy at Rome visited Garibaldi at Caprera.

FLORENCE, August 24.—A war appropriation of forty millions lire passed both houses.

PLYMOUTH, August 23.—A French corvette captured a Prussian bark off this port. The people gathered on the beach to witness the operation.

BERLIN, August 24.—The Prussians have occupied Meziers.

Tuesday Evening Dispatches.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, August 23.—The La Liberte reports that Bazaine had succeeded in reaching the Railroad from Metzeres to Toulmedy, finding trains filled with supplies awaiting him at Sedan. Bazaine and McMahon communicate by couriers.

Paris journals continue to urge a levy en masse to exterminate the invaders. French gunboats are recalled from the Rhine to the Seine.

LONDON, August 23.—It is almost certain that the intervention of the Great Powers will occur in a few days.

Bazaine has forced a passage by way of Autun and Longuion, reaching Montmedy. It is reported that the armies of the Prince Royal and Frederick Charles have formed a junction westward of Metz. The Post is authorized to deny the authenticity of Victoria's letter to Eugenie published yesterday in the Standard's Paris correspondence. It is says that Paris will be defended even if bombardment occurs. The Opinion Nationale under the caption "Keep cool," predicts France an defeat as the result of pending combinations.

The Emperor has determined to charge with McMahon's army in the next battle. His camp at Chalons is certainly raised. The Emperor's headquarters are at Rheims. McMahon's is at Carignonlieu.

A Paris special says it is reported that Bazaine was reinforced on Sunday from Chalons and the armies of the King and Steinmetz are too crippled to assume the offensive. Another special says, Bazaine has his north and centre open either to reinforce or retreat. Bazaine professes to be master of the situation.

A dispatch from Paris says Pillato announced in the Corps yesterday the receipt of good news from Bazaine giving proof of Bazaine's confidence wherein the govern ment shared.

PAIN KILLER
PERRY DAVIS' & SON'S
1840 1870

CHOLERA.

HOW TO CURE IT.

At the commencement of the Diarrhœa, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water, (hot, if convenient) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer also. Should the diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a time.

The Pain Killer as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dysentery, Asiatic Cholera, cures in one night by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Sick Headache and Toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a PAIN KILLER.

Directions accompany each bottle.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines.

Prices, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle.

E. H. FOUSE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq. Raleigh, N. C. Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly,
W. T. HOWLE.

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY
OF THE

92 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

GENERAL AGENTS,
CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE
HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 5th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after THEY OPEN BOOKS TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.
CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!
For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜ is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

No accidents have ever happened with it.
Protected by right for 20 years from May 8th 1868, and has been in constant use for three years, and has sustained its upwards reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurous to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.
Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:
PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.
The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.
The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.
Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
